

RARINJINDA

architectural beauty in historical Chiang Mai.

Located in the historical neighbourhood of Wat Kate, near the Ping river, Rarinjinda Wellness Spa Resort is the ideal place for relaxation and rejuvenation. Yet, at walking distance to Chiang Mai Night Bazaar.

The resort provides four categories of 35 boutique rooms and the main building's U shape creates a quiet heaven, preserving the soothing atmosphere. All around the resort, water features and plants enhance the sense of calm. The swimming pool is one of the highlights of the resort, with wooden walkways connecting rooms.

When entering the resort, one will be amazed by the beauty of the lobby area, housed in a 140-year-old teak house. Each other part of the resort is all about coziness and style. When staying at Rarinjinda Resort, don't miss joining one of the hotel's Hatha Yoga classes, offered twice daily. Also, rejuvenate at the spa which combines different healing practices, and has received Thailand Spa & Well-Being Awards 2014 as Best Wellness Spa and Best Destination Spa.
